The artistic path of Gianni Lenoci is continuously progressing. Always involved in the most evolved jazz and in free improvisation, but also in the 'serious' field of Contemporary Classical Music, is here performer and interpreter (in particular, a deep knower of the keyboard music by J. S. Bach, Morton Feldman and John Cage). All this and even more is bringing us to the reach musical world that here finds Lenoci with a band of excellent musicians, with the outstanding presence of Taylor Ho Bynum, appreciated New York trumpeter, already performer with other great musicians among which the Anthony Braxton.
